ITALIAN YACHT DESIGN: CLASSIC SOUL REDESIGNED UNDER A MODERN TOUCH

At first sight it reveals its classic soul redesigned under a modern touch, which makes its almost futuristic line more flowing out of the water but with a solid hull with great performances, seaworthiness and navigability- proof: this is the Classica 37, the first pleasure yacht of the new line ClassicA invented by the Parigi Family, in charge of the shipyards Italian Vessels srl in Termoli, where the yacht, which has already found a purchaser, will be built under the expert leadership of the property.
